The Women

Honored by invitation to the cocktail hour preceding the Annual Dinner of The B.S.I. The custom was formalized by Julian Wolff in 1961, which also is the year when, irregularly, two ladies were invited; according to the report published in the BSJ (March 1961, p. 53), the First Irregular Toast was delivered to “A Certain Gracious Lady,” Mrs. Edgar W. Smith, by Julian Wolff, and Carl Anderson gave the First Canonical Toast to Mrs. James Montgomery, The Woman.

Ladies were honored during the cocktail hour in earlier years, and some (but not all) of them have been identified. Edgar W. Smith was (as Jon L. Lellenberg has observed) often “deliberately opaque when it came to BSI association with the Fair Sex,” but we do know about Edith Meiser (1942), Gypsy Rose Lee (1943), Lee Wright (1944), Helene Yuhasova (1946), Mrs. Morris L. Kaplan (Carolyn A. Davis, daughter of Elmer Davis) (1947), Sylvia Porter (1957), Maria von Krebs (1959), and Coe Glade (1960). It is reasonable to assume that there were others, and of course we hope to be able to identify them.

Beginning in 1967, The Woman has proceeded from the cocktail hour to a small dinner party, sometimes at a restaurant chosen by The Woman of the previous year. More than one lady was occasionally invited to the cocktail hour, and many ladies beginning in 1992, but only one has been honored as The Woman.

Other BSI Honours & Information

The Morley-Montgomery Award for best article in the Baker Street Journal is awarded annually. See a list of all winners at the BSI website's Morley-Montgomery Award page.

Additional BSI Honours exist. Some are one-time awards, and others recur regularly. For records of many of these, see the BSI Trust website's BSI Dinner pages.

See the BSI website's Membership in the BSI page for more information on membership.

Most PDF viewers/browsers will let you adjust Print settings to center this document on standard 8.5x11 paper, which will leave plenty of room on the left to punch holes for notebooking. When using Chrome, try clicking the Print icon, then open the "more settings" drop-down and set the "Scale" option to "Fit to printable area." With other programs, see if a "print actual size" option or a "left margin" setting will help.

Acknowledgements

The BSI wants to thank Willis Frick for his invaluable Sherlockian contribution of hosting the list of BSI members on his Sherlocktron website for 20+ years.

Peter E. Blau published his first list of Investitured Irregulars in his seasonal souvenir for 1973. He has continued to update the list, and now as “Simpson” (Secretary) of the BSI, he maintains the official record for the Baker Street Irregulars.
